Ayodeji Ezra-Williams

directs the Technite Institute, a Kingdom Leadership Training initiative designed to help Christians, Fellowships, and Churches transition from religion to the kingdom, from Church to becoming Ekklesia, and from Church members to Kingdom Citizens. He oversees Ekklesia Centre [Kingdom Colony] in Lagos, Nigeria and which is also connected to Kingdom Communities in Lagos, Ibadan, Ogun, Benin, Abuja, and United Kingdom, Canada and USA. Ayodeji Ezra-Williams is called to be apostolic missionary t. He coordinates The Regenesis, a kingdom entrepôt dedicated to teaching and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom and the restoration of all things.

At The REGENESIS, we are pioneering the Systemic shift from Institutional religion to KINGDOM reality. Our work is centred on the strategic development of KINGDOM COLONIES and the architectural facilitation of EKKLESIA. We empower leaders to navigate the critical migration from traditional church structures to apostolic assemblies—moving believers beyond the limitations of 'church membership' into the full authority of Kingdom Citizenship.

The Regenesi

s facilitates and convenes the City Apostolic Council, a quarterly gathering of Elders of the Ekklesia in Lagos, Nigeria. The City Apostolic Council (CAC) envisions the One Body of Christ, City-by-City, regularly celebrating as one church of the City.

With four decades of involvement in Church Development dating back to the Word of Faith Movement in the 80s, Ayodeji served with Rev. Dr. Tunde Joda of the Voice of Faith Ministries as a ministry assistant and later became the pioneer Evangelist for Christ Chapel Int'l Churches in Port Harcourt. The Apostolic and Prophetic movement in the 90s allowed him to be connected with Rev. Tunde Bakare of Global Apostolic Impact Network and the Congress-WBN led by Dr. Noel Woodroffe.

Ayodeji also served on the Kingdom Community Network Executive Council under the directorship of Paul Ogedengbe, the West Africa Coordinator of Congress-WBN. He also served as the pioneer Principal and Faculty member of the WBN - Breakthrough School of Ministry for five years.

He is the author of the books "The Desolating Sacrilege" (2001) and "The Judgment to Come" (2005). He is married to Ranti and resides with his family in Lagos, Nigeria

“We are God’s co-workers. You are God’s field.” [1 Corinthians 3:9]

Our understanding of the calling of God is that our life and ministry are not separate – they are one. Therefore, our personal cost of living and the cost of the work of ministry are not separate – they both come out of the same “pot”, so to speak. In the exercise of our ministry, we do not work for nor receive support from any church denomination or religious organization. We look solely to the Lord and trust in His provision through His people. YOUR FINANCIAL GIVING IS THE KEY THAT RELEASES US TO SERVE THE LARGER BODY OF CHRIST.

We place the highest value on what we have freely received from the Lord – it’s “priceless”. We operate on the Lord’s principle:

“Freely you have received; freely give.” (Matthew 10:28)

We understand this to mean:

All receivers should also be givers. And all givers should be receivers. (1 Corinthians 9:11)

Therefore, we freely give to you what we have freely received from the Lord. (John 3:27 & 1 Corinthians 4:7)

In return, we “freely” receive contributions. “God loves a cheerful giver.” (2 Corinthians 9:7)

If you have tasted of the goodness of the Lord through this ministry and believe that it is beneficially serving the Cause of Christ in this age, your contributions toward the support of the work of ministry would be appreciated with all sincerity and allocated with all integrity.

We hope to grow friendships with those who partner with us. We would love to carry on correspondence with you and participate in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, sharing life with one another. So please feel free to correspond with us. THANK YOU
